International Women's Day
#IWD2020 #EachforEqual
March 8, 2020

The International Women's Day is a day set aside to celebrate women all over the world. This day has been used to address the huge differences in the types of inequity faced by Nigerian women from cultural representation, political inclusion, education attainment to domestic burdens and child marriage. The day also marks the giants strides made by Nigerian women in sectors both locally and internationally.

We are aware that women constitute more than half of the population in most states in Nigeria, having their own right with potentials, wisdom, talents and skills that they can contribute to develop the country. Women have called for sincere consideration, implementation of at least 35% Affirmative Action at all levels to encourage their participation and involvement as leaders and decision-makers in households, communities as well as public and private spheres.

The theme for this year's International Women's Day is :#EachforEqual.
